

Greek Out!

The Geneva School of Boerne

Boerne, TX

Lyrics by Mary Clifford, 2009
(sung to “Le Freak”)

Chorus:

Aaaah, Greek Out!
(the Greeks, so chic)
Greek Out!
Aaaah, Greek Out!
(the Greeks, so chic)
Greek Out!

Have you heard about the latest craze?
On Mt. Olympus, they’re doing it night and day.
It’s called the Greek, you can join our Pantheon;
Keep the rhythm, it’s no marathon.

The early Greeks those civilized Mycenaeans,
They fought the Trojans, won, and sung a long paeon,
Then came Dark Ages, with the Barbarians,
Oh, How Uncivilized!

Chorus

Soon came the famed Greek Classical Age
With Olympic spirit, it really was the rage;
Followed by that Hellenistic time
Of many great Greeks, they really were sublime.

Oh those Greeks, they’ve given us so much:
Art, architecture, philosophy and such.
The Alphabet? They gave that to us too . . .
. . . Alpha, Beta . . .

Chorus:

Aaaah, Greek Out!
(the Greeks, so chic)
Greek Out!

Sing Greek!
