NUNTIATA II CORINTHIANS 4:5–6

For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and ourselves your bondservants for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who commanded light to shine out of darkness, who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

REPAIRING THE RUINS

The Gray Havens will be joining us in Pittsburgh for the 2017 Repairing the Ruins Conference. David and Licia Radford are fans of classical Christian education, and their major influences lyrically are J.R.R. Tolkien and C.S. Lewis. To learn more, visit <http://2017.repairingtheruins.org/25th-anniversary-with-the-gray-havens/>

We continue to develop new plans, helpful speakers, and important topics for the 2017 Repairing the Ruins Conference in Pittsburgh. With engaging speakers like Douglas Wilson, Robert George, and John Mark Reynolds, we hope to see you there.

CALVARY CLASSICAL SCHOOL

in Hampton, VA, is seeking to fill a head of school retirement vacancy for the 2017–18 year. For over 20 years, CCS has served the Hampton Roads area by providing a distinctly classical Christian education that has equipped students with a biblical worldview. The school has recently reinstated a seventh grade and is beginning 8th grade in the 2017–2018 school year. With a national trend of declining enrollment in Christian Schools affecting the school, CCS is poised to see the Lord's hand in guiding her future. We seek to hire a strong head of school who will oversee the personnel, programs, and procedures to ensure Calvary Classical School fulfills the mission of the school and provides an excellent Christ-centered education for its students. Calvary Classical School exists to assist parents in fulfilling their covenantal duty to educate their children by offering a Christian, classical, and biblically-integrated curriculum, resulting in students who think and learn independently for the glory of God. Applicants should have a minimum of a bachelor's degree with experience in teaching as well as administration; coursework in educational leadership preferred. For a full job description, please see WWW.CALVARYCLASSICAL.ORG. We ask that applicants hold to the Westminster Confession of Faith or the 1689 London Baptist Confession of Faith. Interested applicants may submit a résumé to the CCS School Board at CDAVIDSON@CALVARYCLASSICAL.ORG. Résumés will be received through January 31, 2016. 1/17 is seeking a headmaster or assistant headmaster position. He is a retiring naval officer and fighter pilot. He is a senior executive with 21 years of leadership experience in small to large organizations, and thrives in dynamic, high-stress, and fluid environments. He has extensive experience in operations, including leading a high-performance team of 700 employees and managing an $8 million budget. He also has experience as a fellow in the U.S. Senate and currently works at NATO Headquarters in education and training. He has a master of arts in strategy and policy and is pursuing a master of divinity in theology at Liberty University. He is looking to continue his passionate service by using his leadership, decision making, and communication skills toward “starting children off on the way they should go.” Brian is praying for an opportunity to serve the Lord—potentially alongside his wife—and finding a quality school for their two children, as well as a permanent home. Please contact him at BRIAN.ROS.HODGES@GMAIL.COM. 12/16 is seeking an upper school humanities position. He is a PhD candidate in philosophy in the conjoint program run by the Institute for Christian Studies (Toronto) and the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam (expected graduation spring 2017). He has experience teaching philosophy and theology at the high school and university levels, and his written work has appeared in many well-respected academic venues. Joshua is very enthusiastic about the classical

Christian education movement in North America and beyond, and would count it as a privilege to shape students’ hearts and minds in an ACCS institution. Please contact him at JHARRIS@ICSCANADA.EDU. 12/16

is seeking an upper school humanities position or a hybrid teaching and academic or faculty dean role. He is currently a principal at a classical, Christian school with thirteen years of upper school classical teaching experience. As a principal, David has developed upper school academic programming and curriculum, evaluated and mentored teachers, and presented classical education to the school community. As a teacher, areas of instruction include all levels of history, literature, theology, logic, grammar/writing, and rhetoric. David’s students find him to exhibit high energy, humor, clear communication, social awareness, and consistent academic and behavioral standards. From a co-curricular standpoint, he is able to contribute coaching skills in cross-country and wrestling. He is a passionate teacher having a natural ability to connect the disciplines within the framework of a sophisticated Christian worldview. Please contact him at BOOKLOVERANDRUNNER@YAHOO.COM or (406) 309-5567. 12/16

DAWN EVANS

I am a born again believer and evangelist seeking a Bible teaching or ESL teaching post anywhere in the USA. I wish to teach the Bible to children and I have worked in seven countries where I have taught English as a second language teaching children and adults, at university and businesses as well as language schools. I wish to embark on a career teaching the Bible. I speak three languages (French German, and Japanese) and am British married to an American citizen. I am versatile, fun, and teach in a clear concise way. I have also worked as an IELTS examiner. I have been a street preacher in London for about two years and have a love of evangelism and sharing the good news to different people from all walks of life. I am energetic, a good all rounder, and have vision and passion for young people. I love working with children especially around 10–15 and have an ability to build rapport quickly with them. I am interested in a paid position as I am not self sufficient without some compensation. I would consider an overseas teaching opportunity as well as in the U.S. Contact me at DAWNEVANS371@GMAIL.COM. 1/17

TARA L. JERNIGAN

Twice seminary trained classical educator seeking employment as a Greek (Koine) or Bible teacher. I am also capable of teaching history (ancients) and introductory French where there is a need. Experienced in online teaching formats but preferring a face-to-face classroom. Prefer to remain in Southwest Pennsylvania (Pittsburgh) or to relocate to East Tennessee, Eastern Kentucky, North Carolina or South Carolina. Email: JERNIGAN.TARA.L@GMAIL.COM. 2/17

ANDREW DAVID GRAHAM

I'm interested in a head of school or key administrator role. I have been practicing law for the last thirteen years, but I want to return to where my heart is. I come from the great books tradition starting from my early days at Trinity Christian Academy in Dallas, Texas, and continuing through Southern Methodist University, Oxford, and the University of Chicago. I also believe that my legal expertise would be a tremendous asset for any school. Email: ANDREWGRAHAMESQ@GMAIL.COM. 2/17 is a classical teacher with fifteen years experience learning and teaching the classical method. He is a member of the Torrey Honors Institute and holds a BA in humanities, an MA in theology, and a PhD in philosophy. He has held positions as a master tutor (at Torrey Academy in CA) and high-school director (at Veritas Christian Academy in KY.) I'm looking for full-time work, as a humanities teacher, department head, or headmaster/principal. My "dream job" would be primarily teaching and secondarily administrative duties, such as vice-principal or department head at an established or small-but-growing classical Christian school. Email: KEITHEDBUHLER@GMAIL.COM. 2/17

JENNIFER LYNN POWELL

I am an enthusiastic grammar school teacher, with eight years classical experience. I presently teach at Renaissance Classical Christian Academy as a fifth-grade teacher. I am well versed in the ACCS and trivium methods. I am proficient in teaching and integrating a biblical worldview in all subjects. Teaching God's word has been a great pleasure and powerful ministry; I pray that in our relocation I can obtain a position with an outstanding institution such as the one I will be leaving. 2/17

Classical Christian Education in Missions in Africa as a Mission Outreach—Really? How? And Why?

Africa is home to more than 50% of all out-of-school children worldwide. In most African countries there are more than 70 students per class—students have to share textbooks, desks and in some cases, students go to school in shifts.

The continent will need to create 2.3 million new teaching positions by 2030, while filling about 3.9 million vacant positions due to attrition. That's 6.2 million new teachers needed in 13 years. We believe God has called the Rafiki Foundation to help raise the standard of education in ten African countries. We have opportunities for classically trained headmasters or teachers to help establish classical Christian education in ten countries in Africa. Rafiki is a Christian mission-sending agency working in ten English-speaking African countries. In each country we have established Rafiki Training Villages, where orphans are cared for and educated in Rafiki classical Christian schools along with local day students. Each school has the capacity for 250–350 students. In addition, Rafiki is establishing ten teacher training colleges designed to develop 1,000 new Christian classical teachers each year for Africa.

Rafiki has these opportunities for classical educators:

- Headmasters (4 openings)
- Teachers (20 openings)
- Dean of the Rafiki Institute of Classical Education (training Africans how to establish their own classical Christian school) – 5 openings

- Music educators and art educators: 10 openings

Persons suitable for this would be: retired headmasters or head of school, classical teachers or recent liberal arts college graduates. These postings are typically staffed by missionaries who commit to a minimum of two years on the field (some positions might only require one year commitment). Persons interested would have to assent to our statement of belief, our mission philosophy, and raise financial support. We are praying that God will use Rafiki to bring classical Christian education to all of Africa through our model schools. Perhaps God might give you or someone you know the opportunity to help Africans know God and raise their standard of living through classical Christian education. Please visit our website at WWW.RAFIKIFOUNDATION.ORG to learn more or contact Executive Director Karen Elliott at KARENE@RAFIKIFOUNDATION.ORG or (352) 483-9131. 12/16

Due to our continued growth, Cahaya Bangsa Classical School (CBCS) in Indonesia has some openings for the 2016–17 SY as follows: one expat teacher for language arts/rhetoric in high school and one expat teacher for language arts/rhetoric in elementary school. The qualifications of the teacher are: graduated from English literature or linguistic (bachelor's degree or higher) or certified English teacher with in TEFL, TESOL, or CELTA certificate; 25–50 years old; preferably with at least five years of experience; mature Christian; passport valid for a minimum of two years more; and a love of learning. Experiences in coaching students for thesis writing and defense will be advantageous. Cahaya Bangsa Classical School, a K–12 English-speaking school with 700 Indonesian students and a majority of local teachers, is located in Bandung, Indonesia. Applicants must have commitment to Christian classical education, a heart of missions, ability to adjust to different cultures, and strong personal references (working commitment at least two years).
