JOHN 4:13–14

Jesus answered and said to her, “Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life.”

WE ARE MOVING

During the week of March 20, we will be moving our Moscow office. The new street address is 317 W. 6th Street, Suite #211, Moscow, ID 83843. (Our PO Box 9741 remains the same.)

We hope to minimize interruptions during that week but would appreciate your understanding should there be a delay responding to phone calls or emails.

REPAIRING THE RUINS

Focused training for board members, music teachers, and rhetoric teachers. Sessions run from 1:00 pm to 9:00 pm, June 21.

- Rhetoric—A hands-on, active course in excellent rhetoric training practices in the classroom for both rhetoric teachers, and teachers of other subjects in the rhetoric phase.
- Board Governance—Through the use of ISM’s Stability Markers, Bill Simmer will help board members position their schools for improvement over time.
- Music—A Kodaly-based program for music teachers in instrument and voice at all levels, K-12.

Register for the conference here: <https://www.regonline.com/registration/Checkin.aspx?EventID=1931422>.

CALVARY CLASSICAL SCHOOL

in Hampton, VA, is seeking to fill a head of school retirement vacancy for the 2017–18 year. For over 20 years, CCS has served the Hampton Roads area by providing a distinctly classical Christian education that has equipped students with a biblical worldview. The school has recently reinstated a seventh grade and is beginning 8th grade in the 2017–2018 school year. With a national trend of declining enrollment in Christian Schools affecting the school, CCS is poised to see the Lord's hand in guiding her future. We seek to hire a strong head of school who will oversee the personnel, programs, and procedures to ensure Calvary Classical School fulfills the mission of the school and provides an excellent Christ-centered education for its students. Calvary Classical School exists to assist parents in fulfilling their covenantal duty to educate their children by offering a Christian, classical, and biblically-integrated curriculum, resulting in students who think and learn independently for the glory of God. Applicants should have a minimum of a bachelor's degree with experience in teaching as well as administration; coursework in educational leadership preferred. For a full job description, please see WWW.CALVARYCLASSICAL.ORG. We ask that applicants hold to the Westminster Confession of Faith or the 1689 London Baptist Confession of Faith. Interested applicants may submit a résumé to the CCS School Board at CDAVIDSON@CALVARYCLASSICAL.ORG. Résumés will be received through January 31, 2016. 1/17

I am a born again believer and evangelist seeking a Bible teaching or ESL teaching post anywhere in the USA. I wish to teach the Bible to children and I have worked in seven countries where I have taught English as a second language teaching children and adults, at university and businesses as well as language schools. I wish to embark on a career teaching the Bible. I speak three languages (French German, and Japanese) and am British married to an American citizen. I am versatile, fun, and teach in a clear concise way. I have also worked as an IELTS examiner. I have been a street preacher in London for about two years and have a love of evangelism and sharing the good news to different people from all walks of life. I am energetic, a good all rounder, and have vision and passion for young people. I love working with children especially around 10-15 and have an ability to build rapport quickly with them. I am interested in a paid position as I am not self sufficient without some compensation. I would consider an overseas teaching opportunity as well as in the U.S. Contact me at DAWNEVANS371@GMAIL.COM. 1/17

TARA L. JERNIGAN

Twice seminary trained classical educator seeking employment as a Greek (Koine) or Bible teacher. I am also capable of teaching history (ancients) and introductory French where there is a need. Experienced in online teaching formats but preferring a face-to-face classroom. Prefer to remain in Southwest Pennsylvania (Pittsburgh) or to relocate to East Tennessee, Eastern Kentucky, North Carolina, or South Carolina. Email: JERNIGAN.TARA.L@GMAIL.COM. 2/17

ANDREW DAVID GRAHAM

I'm interested in a head of school or key administrator role. I have been practicing law for the last thirteen years, but I want to return to where my heart is. I come from the great books tradition starting from my early days at Trinity Christian Academy in Dallas, Texas, and continuing through Southern Methodist University, Oxford, and the University of Chicago. I also believe that my legal expertise would be a tremendous asset for any school. Email: ANDREWGRAHAMESQ@GMAIL.COM. 2/17 is a classical teacher with fifteen years experience learning and teaching the classical method. He is a member of the Torrey Honors Institute and holds a BA in humanities, an MA in theology, and a PhD in philosophy. He has held positions as a master tutor (at Torrey Academy in CA) and high-school director (at Veritas Christian Academy in KY.) I'm looking for full-time work, as a humanities teacher, department head, or headmaster/principal. My "dream job" would be primarily teaching and secondarily administrative duties, such as vice-principal or department head at an established or small-but-growing classical Christian school. Email: KEITHEDBUHLER@GMAIL.COM. 2/17

JENNIFER LYNN POWELL

I am an enthusiastic grammar school teacher, with eight years classical experience. I presently teach at Renaissance Classical Christian Academy as a fifth-grade teacher. I am well versed in the ACCS and trivium methods. I am proficient in teaching and integrating a biblical worldview in all subjects. Teaching God's word has been a great pleasure and powerful ministry; I pray that in our relocation I can obtain a position with an outstanding institution such as the one I will be leaving. 2/17

ROSELLA PERRONE

Dear recruiter,

Attached please find my CV/resume as an indication of my genuine interest in and enthusiasm for Italian/Spanish language and/or English literature teacher position. As the CV/résumé indicates, I am a broadly experienced secondary and college level educator of Italian and Spanish languages, as well as English language and literature teacher and guide for Western European cultural studies, history, and literature. I have developed Italian and Spanish studies curricula that include literature, drama, and music and have approached language history studies from a cultural, as well as a lingual view point. I have organized and maintain language clubs. Presently I am the head of the "Opera Club" and have organized many successful events. In addition, I have provided private tutoring and via respected companies—for students in subjects that include English as a second language, English language arts, Italian, Spanish, history and social studies and test preparation. 3/17

JEFFREY WILLIAM BANKS

"You are what you love," writes Christian theologian James K.A. Smith, and his words frame my goal as a teacher: to educate the heart as well as the mind. I am passionate about forming the loves of students as well as informing them about the Bible, theology, and great works of literature. It is a passion that stems from my experience studying in settings that emphasize "whole-person" education. Contact me at: PO Box 249, Royal Oak, Maryland 21662 United States, (847) 323-5468, or jeffwbanks@gmail.com. 3/17

JOHN KENNON GRANT

Along with being a husband and father of two, I am an administrator, teacher, and coach who not only believes in the nonpareil nature of Christian education, but is also one who experienced God's goodness through Christian education. I was in a public middle school when my parents died. The Lord opened doors to Christian education. I was radically changed. I've been blessed to see similar changes happen as a teacher, coach, and administrator. I am firmly convinced that Christian education is not merely about informing a mind with various facts, but about forming a heart and life with both facts and habits that ultimately bring about the kingdom of God. My education and experience are all geared towards the end of Christian formation through formal education. I hold a bachelor's degree from Crichton College and a master's degree from Reformed Theological Seminary. I currently hold an ACSI credential for a secondary principal. My experience includes seven years in Christian education, with five in the classroom and now two in full-time administration. I also served as an adjunct instructor at Victory University where I taught undergraduate courses in Bible and theology. Through my years in Christian education, I've coached golf, baseball, basketball, and football. No matter my role in school, my ministry is essentially a ministry of presence, daily presenting the Lord's faithfulness I've experienced through tragedy and joy. Contact at 8488 Lofton Cv, Cordova, TN 38018-7319, (901) 833-3338, or JOHNKGRNT@GMAIL.COM. 3/17

JOSH SKINNER

I am seeking an opportunity to share my love of theology, literature, philosophy, and history with children and young adults in a classical, Christian setting. I have 15 years of experience working with youth and children in a variety of ministerial contexts. I have a BA in English-Literature and a ThB in historical theology, and I am currently completing an MA in English Literature (Spring 2018). I love to learn as much or more than I love to teach, so I am constantly seeking opportunities to grow in my own knowledge as well as my teaching craft. Contact at 301 Willow St., Ector, TX 75439, (903) 422-2871 or JOSHRSKINNER@GMAIL.COM. 3/17

Classical Christian Education in Missions in Africa as a Mission Outreach—Really? How? And Why?

Africa is home to more than 50% of all out-of-school children worldwide. In most African countries there are more than 70 students per class—students have to share textbooks, desks and in some cases, students go to school in shifts.

The continent will need to create 2.3 million new teaching positions by 2030, while filling about 3.9 million vacant positions due to attrition. That's 6.2 million new teachers needed in 13 years. We believe God has called the Rafiki Foundation to help raise the standard of education in ten African countries. We have opportunities for classically trained headmasters or teachers to help establish classical Christian education in ten countries in Africa. Rafiki is a Christian mission-sending agency working in ten English-speaking African countries. In each country we have established Rafiki Training Villages, where orphans are cared for and educated in Rafiki classical Christian schools along with local day students. Each school has the capacity for 250–350 students. In addition, Rafiki is establishing ten teacher training colleges designed to develop 1,000 new Christian classical teachers each year for Africa.

Rafiki has these opportunities for classical educators:

- Headmasters (4 openings)
- Teachers (20 openings)
- Dean of the Rafiki Institute of Classical Education (training Africans how to establish their own classical Christian school) – 5 openings

- Music educators and art educators: 10 openings

Persons suitable for this would be: retired headmasters or head of school, classical teachers or recent liberal arts college graduates. These postings are typically staffed by missionaries who commit to a minimum of two years on the field (some positions might only require one year commitment). Persons interested would have to assent to our statement of belief, our mission philosophy, and raise financial support. We are praying that God will use Rafiki to bring classical Christian education to all of Africa through our model schools. Perhaps God might give you or someone you know the opportunity to help Africans know God and raise their standard of living through classical Christian education. Please visit our website at WWW.RAFIKIFOUNDATION.ORG to learn more or contact Executive Director Karen Elliott at KARENE@RAFIKIFOUNDATION.ORG or (352) 483-9131. 3/17

Due to our continued growth, Cahaya Bangsa Classical School (CBCS) in Indonesia has some openings for the 2016–17 SY as follows: one expat teacher for language arts/rhetoric in high school and one expat teacher for language arts/rhetoric in elementary school. The qualifications of the teacher are: graduated from English literature or linguistic (bachelor's degree or higher) or certified English teacher with in TEFL, TESOL, or CELTA certificate; 25–50 years old; preferably with at least five years of experience; mature Christian; passport valid for a minimum of two years more; and a love of learning. Experiences in coaching students for thesis writing and defense will be advantageous. Cahaya Bangsa Classical School, a K–12 English-speaking school with 700 Indonesian students and a majority of local teachers, is located in Bandung, Indonesia. Applicants must have commitment to Christian classical education, a heart of missions, ability to adjust to different cultures, and strong personal references (working commitment at least two years). For more information, contact Agnes Tahar, AGNES@CAHAYABANGSA.ORG or HRD@CAHAYABANGSA.ORG. 2/17
