1 CHRONICLES 29: 11-15

Yours, O Lord, is the greatness, The power and the glory, The victory and the majesty; For all that is in heaven and in earth is Yours; Yours is the kingdom, O Lord, And You are exalted as head over all. Both riches and honor come from You, And You reign over all. In Your hand is power and might; In Your hand it is to make great And to give strength to all. Now therefore, our God, We thank You And praise Your glorious name. But who am I, and who are my people, That we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For all things come from You, And of Your own we have given You. For we are aliens and pilgrims before You, As were all our fathers; Our days on earth are as a shadow, And without hope.

ELISABETH ROSE HOKANSON

As a result of my teaching experience in Tanzania and at Baldwin Christian School and education at New Saint Andrews College, I have developed a passion and personal commitment to three things: fostering Christ-centered and academically rigorous environment for students with various backgrounds, maximizing individual student performance, and developing students' love for learning. During my career at New Saint Andrews College, I wrestled with the the works of the most influential minds throughout history; identifying themes and influences, and holding these up to Christianity. Speaking and writing clearly, winsomely, and succinctly were vital to my success. In my most recent positions as a Music and Art Dean, PE teacher, and Assistant Dean, I developed effective lesson plans, thought-provoking exercises, and useful assessments that promote curiosity and making connections across the curriculum. I also acted as an administrator both in Tanzania and Baldwin Christian Classical Academy. Contact me by email at ELISABETH.HOKANSON@GMAIL.COM. 4/18

BECKY S. STAGGS

I have been the Principal at Sojourn Academy, a Classical PK-12th grade school north of Houston, for the past two years with a total of 21 years of experience in education in both teaching and administration. The teachers and I have been reading the book Teaching How to Learn in a What-to-Learn Culture by Kathleen Hopkins. Have you heard of it? The book is a surprisingly easy read based on cognitive research that gives teachers (and old Principals) a practical guide to instructional strategies that support Classical education. We have been thoroughly enjoying it! My personal objective is to lead a school body to love the Lord with all our hearts, souls, minds and strength and our neighbors as ourselves, in an education that prepares them to be all that God has called them to be (Matthew 22: 37-39). I believe a Classical education equips students to do just that. I have grown to love and appreciate the classical approach to education after having raised an eye brow to it 11 years ago. I am simply a person who has been forever changed by the unbelievable love of God. This is humbling work God has called us to; investing in the lives of children. I have an ePortfolio that further demonstrates my school leadership and teaching abilities in greater detail with real life application, my testimony, etc.: HTTP://BCKSTAGGS. To contact me, email BCKSTAGGS@GMAIL.COM. 4/18

CHRISTOPHER CHARLES GREEN

Please consider my qualifications and experience as you allocate teaching roles at your school. I'd just like to take a moment to let you know what my qualifications, experience and extracurricular interests are: First, I'm a teacher in English literature, biblical and theological studies. From 2003-06, I taught high school English at the Kern High School District in California. Then, from 2010-2014, I served at Wesley Institute as Lecturer in Systematic Theology (renamed Excelsia College in 2014) and have, since then, taught at both the undergraduate level

(online, Azusa Pacific University) and at the secondary level at Plenty Valley Christian College. My Plenty Valley role has involved me in teaching both the Bible and English literature to student groups with diverse faith backgrounds. I have a passion for students, and especially enabling them to see the world through the eyes of the Bible. I have in-depth training in biblical studies, with an emphasis on biblical Hebrew and the Old Testament from my MA degree. This involved training in biblical Greek as well, and during my time at Trinity I chose to focus on biblical theology as my subject of interest. My extracurricular activity of interest would probably be debate, which is what I did during my student days. Please feel free to contact any of the references listed on my CV. I am a US citizen, so I can work in the US. For resume and cover letter, please email CGME@FASTMAIL.FM. 4/18

NATHAN STERNER COBB

In high school, I was a music tutor. In college, I taught summer music camps. When I finished my Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and minor in music, I became a substitute teacher. Shortly after that, I began teaching 5th grade at a Christian school. Two years later, I became a police officer and, two years after that, a police training officer. But I missed the classroom. Therefore, I began a Master of Arts in Teaching program to sharpen my pedagogical skill and transition back into the classroom. While completing my master's degree, I also obtained a Teaching English as a Foreign Language certificate should the opportunity to combine classical Christian education and international missions arise. In the meantime, I have finished my master's degree and returned to the classroom as a PE teacher in a public school. I am, however, eager to return to a classroom where I can help parents sharpen their arrows through education that is discipleship (Psalm 127:4; Deuteronomy 6:4-9). You can contact me by email or phone, NATHANCOBB@LIVE.COM; (270) 231-7369. 4/18

CHRISTINE HOLLY MCCONNELL

I am a dually certified elementary classroom teacher as well as a literacy specialist. I have been a teacher for the last twelve years, six of those years in a Christian school, four of those years in the classical method. My classroom instructional experience includes, but is not limited to, teaching Latin at the primary level, phonics, traditional mathematics, and the implementation of Classical Conversations into a classroom setting. I teach Classical Conversations workshops on geography to lower elementary students for two summers now. After school throughout the year, I teach private music lessons in classical piano. Through reading and professional development, I enjoy staying current in best practices for classical education. You can contact me by email, CMCCONNELL0827@GMAIL.COM. 4/18

CHRISTY ANNE VAUGHAN

I believe Classical Christian Education is Biblical. I seek to serve in creating educational opportunities for all learners (including adults) to succeed to the heights of their God-given potential. In March 2018 I completed my doctoral studies (Ed. D in Educational Leadership) through Liberty University and have published in a scholarly journal. I graduated (Phi Kappa Phi) with my master's degree in special education in August 2007. I earned a bachelor's degree in English from the University of Baltimore. I have online as well as classroom teaching experience in regular and special education, secular and Classical Christian education. I have experience speaking to families, educators and community leaders. My husband and I have spent the past eight years studying and supporting Classical Christian Education. Our web site is Www.2CEI.org. Through Classical Christian Education International, Inc. I have developed and presented at teacher trainings and public relations events outlining a Christ centered worldview, the Classical Christian philosophy and methodology as well as the evidence for excellence reported by parents and schools using this method. I have real-world job experience in print publications, communications, and web-site maintenance. I believe I would make a valuable member of your team. I appreciate your prayerful consideration. For more information, please contact me at KINGSWAYCAV@GMAIL.COM, (863) 599-1118. 4/18

PAMELA LYNN IRWIN

I am currently the harp teacher for Hillsborough County Public Schools. I have been a private music teacher for over 20 years and a classroom teacher for 13 years. I have taught general music and now teach harp to students from third grade to twelfth grade. I am also an instrumentalist for a local church and have worked there for 10 years. I am very interested in working for a classical Christian school and would enjoy challenge of learning this way of teaching. For more information, please email me PAMFLUTE@AOL.COM, or call (813) 300-9398. 4/18

MARK SIGNORELLI

I have been following the classical education movement for the last several years, and am keenly interested in becoming involved in a classical school. I believe I would make a fine fit for such a school, as my educational philosophy and classroom approach match very closely with those espoused by classical educators. I was educated for nearly my entire life in a Catholic school, and spent ten years teaching in an all-boys Catholic school. I know the importance of steeping young minds in the faith, and of having faith serve as the focal point for the life of an entire school. I wish very much to work alongside those who feel the same way; who regard the least of a school's daily rituals as an opportunity to raise the minds of young people towards a contemplation of God's presence. For resume and cover letter, please email MARKSIGNORELLI@HOTMAIL.COM. 5/18

MARY ELIZABETH MCGINNIS

Over the last year, I have become excited about Classical Education. I have had the opportunity to observe some classes as well as to do some substitute teaching in Classical schools. What I see in Classical Education is the way that it focuses on growing the student as a whole person with the ability to think logically and critically as they learn. While much of society looks towards the latest and greatest teaching methods, the Classical model focuses on methods that have stood the test of time. That appeals to my desire to be a part of an educational community that is set apart from the government schools. I am especially excited to see the education saturated with the Bible in the Classical Christian Schools. Joining the education community later in life allows me to bring many of my life experiences into the classroom. While my teacher training at the University took place over the last few years, I have been engaged with children in a variety of ways throughout my adult life. My desire is to be a part of a Classical Education Community. Please consider me for teaching position at your school. For resume and cover letter, please email MEMCGINNIS17@GMAIL.COM. 5/18

PHILIP FRANKLIN PUGH

I am a recent graduate of Boston College's Master of Arts in Philosophy program, where I specialized in medieval philosophy and philosophical theology. In addition I hold a BA in Philosophy from

Covenant College (minor in history) as well as a Master of Arts in Theology from Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary, where I specialized in theological ethics and historical systematic theology. I am looking to teach humanities, literature, history, bible, theology, or philosophy full-time at a high school level. My teaching experience consists of two years as a college teaching assistant, a part-time substitute position at a classical school in 2013, where I filled out a semester of Church History at short notice, and various other church-related opportunities, including leading Bible studies and doing catechesis. I am a member in good standing of a PCA church in Leesburg, Virginia, but have also been involved in the Anglican churches of the greater Boston area. For resume and cover letter, please email PHILIPFPUGH@GMAIL.COM. 5/18

JEREMIAH DAVIS

I am a thirty-five year old man with a Bachelor of Arts in Theology and a Master of Arts in English Literature. I've taught foreign languages, literature, and logic to all different age groups, but have never been able to do it full-time as I've always desired to do. I hope, now that I have a Master's, that the opportunity will open itself up for me. I've witnessed firsthand the mind numbing effects of modern education and hope to combat that by teaching in a school where the past is not despised. For cover letter and resume, please email JEREMIAHNGD@HOTMAIL.COM. 5/18

EMILIA BALOG

I am an experienced Latin Teacher who has taught in Classical Christian Schools before and who has lived in London, UK for the past seven years working as an after school Nanny/Tutor. I am currently looking for teaching opportunities in a Classical Christian School environment. I hold a MAR in Theology from Westminster Theological Seminary and a Bachelor degree in Biblical Studies / Greek from Liberty University. I am proficient in classical languages and passionate about the study of literature and Theology. I have written couple of books for children which are in the process of being published. I have a great love for children and for learning. Contact me for my resume at EMILY7717@GMAIL.COM. 5/18

ELLIOT DALTON CARTER

I graduated from Emmaus Bible College in 2015 with a double major in Bible/Theology and Secondary Education: World History. I currently hold a 5-12th grade Iowa teaching license along with an Iowa coaching authorization. I am currently living in Davenport, Iowa. I desire to teach Humanities or Theology at the rhetoric or logic stage (7-12th) utilizing my passion for teaching and my hard work ethic to instill in my students a comprehensive Christian worldview they can apply to their lives. While teaching at Morning Star Academy (an ACCS school) and East Moline Christian School these past two years I have taught my students how to analyze history and literature from a Biblical and Christ-centered perspective. I emphasize the importance of appreciating history, literature, and the Bible while acknowledging complexities due to the fallen state of man. My classroom is one where ideas are challenged through discussion and where I encourage students to hold fast to what is true, knowing all truth comes from the Lord Jesus Christ. I also coach basketball which gives me increased interaction with students that has helped me better communicate to them as their teacher. Finally, I enjoy opportunities to collaborate with colleagues in evaluating and developing skills to best serve students. For cover letter and resume, please email ELLIOT.D.CARTER@GMAIL.COM. 5/18

PEOPLE SEEKING POSITIONS

JOSEPH LEE JUSTISS

Experienced teacher in classical Christian education seeks opportunities in ancient Humanities, Latin, Logic, Bible, Greek, and/or Hebrew. Candidate spent 3 years serving in Jerusalem, Israel while working on a second Master's degree in Ancient Philology and engaging people of various faiths. In addition candidate has coaching experience and expertise in baseball. For resume and CV, please email JLJUSTISS@GMAIL.COM. 6/18

JACOB WESLEY ARCHAMBAULT

I hold a PhD in philosophy from Fordham University, where I wrote a dissertation in the history and philosophy of logic. Upon completing my PhD, I also received a Doctoral Certificate in Medieval Studies, for completing an interdisciplinary program in history, theology, and Latin paleography, in excess of philosophy department requirements. I have six years of teaching experience, across a variety of disciplines and at all educational levels. For three years, I taught Philosophy of Human Nature and Philosophical Ethics at Fordham University. Currently, I teach Metaphysics and Classical Political Philosophy at the high-school level through texts such as Cicero's On Obligations, Aristotle's Metaphysics, Thomas Aquinas' Summa Theologiae, and Augustine's City of God. At the middle-school level, I teach an eighth-grade course preparing students to read Caesar's account of the Gallic Wars, incorporating immersion elements into my teaching. At the elementary level, I assist in teaching mathematics to my son, age 7, whom my wife and I homeschool. For resume and CV, please email JACOBARCHAMBAULT@GMAIL.COM. 6/18

MICHELLE LASCH

I homeschooled my daughters for 10 years before graduating them and sending them both to Hillsdale College. I love teaching, I love Classical Education. I was not ready to be done teaching after they graduated. So I went back to school myself to get my teaching credential in Social Studies. Now I teach humanities in a Classical Christian School in Fullerton, CA. I tremendously love what I do. I love the subject matter and I especially love students. I'm looking for a full-time position as my school is unable to offer one. For resume and cover letter, please email MICHELLELASCH@GMAIL.COM. 6/18

AMY MCDERMOTT

I am a talented, experienced communications and nonprofit/school marketing and development professional. My professional journey has focused on impactful communications and service. Simply put, words are my superpower, and I have always used them in service to the community. Classical education is a passion of mine and I am eager to combine my skills and passion to serve a Christian school community. I have extensive internal/external/crisis communications experience in school settings, plus a significant successful nonprofit development and grant writing experience with a better than 75% grant application approval rate. For resume and CV, please email MCDERMOTT.AMY.K@GMAIL.COM. 6/18

Austin Mackenzie Freeman

I believe knowledge is transformational, that there is a certain form of knowing that is not separable from loving or doing. Knowledge of God's glory, for example, ought necessarily to inspire reverent worship. If we are not worshipful, we have not known the true God. Therefore, my mission is to inspire and excite students in the knowledge of God, believing that a winsome witness in the teaching of theology can be transformative by the power of the Spirit. I also believe that teaching theology is a form of ministry to the Church and evangelism to the world, and thus comes along with all the assurances and warnings appropriate to such an endeavor—but most importantly, with Jesus’ promise of grace and presence. And that is immensely encouraging and invigorating. For cover letter and resume, please email AUSTINMFREEMAN@GMAIL.COM. 6/18

I am primarily interested in positions in the East Texas area. My credentials are in high school humanities - Bible, English Composition and Grammar, Economics, Geography, Greek, Hebrew, Literature, and Philosophy. I have taught for twenty-two years and have been with New Frontiers Christian Academy nearly seven years. Since our new school, Canton Christian Academy, only began in late November, 2017, I have been with this reorganization of the original NFCA. I have both a Personal Testimony document and Personal Vita, if desired. To contact me, please email JOSEPHDRHODES99@GMAIL.COM. 6/18

TESSA J. CRIST

I am K-12 Art Teacher with 2 years of experience in teaching K-12 art in an Iowa Public School. I have a Masters degree in art history so it is my greatest passion to incorporate art history into all my art lessons in all grades. But I also I love to work with classroom teachers to create cross-curricular lessons. I would love the opportunity to teach art in a Christian Classical School, where I could teach art through a Biblical Worldview lens and focus on what is true, good, and beautiful.

I have always felt that God is calling me to teach in a Christian Classical school where I can teach art as an act of worship and delve deeply into philosophy of art and what that looks like from a Biblical perspective. For cover letter and resume, please email TESSAJCRIST@GMAIL.COM. 6/18

CASEY PATRICK COCHRAN

I began my teaching career in 1980 at a Christian school in California. I remained there through most of the 1980s, serving in various teaching and administrative capacities at the middle and secondary levels, including Assistant Principal of Middle School, Assistant Director of Boarding Program, Campus Pastor, and Director of Summer Camps. From 1995-2016, after earning a Ph.D. in Educational Studies, I served on the faculty of Emory University, where I won a number of awards while teaching a variety of courses, including American Education, History of American Education, Philosophy of Education, and Classics of Educational Thought. This Classics course included reading and discussion of The Republic, Augustine’s Confessions (excerpts), Emile, Dewey’s The School and Society and My Pedagogic Creed, Montessori’s The Secret of Childhood, and C.S. Lewis’s The Abolition of Man. In 1998, I co-founded a secondary academic program for home schoolers at my church. As I became aware of the emphases of classical education, I incorporated classical elements into the program, including Latin, philosophy, and informal logic. On a personal note, I am a native of Smyrna, Georgia. I met my wife Linda in 1977 on a trip to Hawaii.

We have been married 40 years and have five children, ages 24 to 38, and three grandsons. We have been active members of Calvary Baptist Church in Smyrna, Georgia since 1992. For cover letter and resume, please email CPCOCHR@EMORY.EDU. 6/18

BILLINGS, MT

The ACCS website states that, "If the Lord reveals the need to you, He may be calling you to start a school." After about a year of reflection, contemplation, study, prayer, research, and more prayer, the time has come for me to heed this call, to move forward, and to contact the ACCS. I seek the establishment of a Classical Christian school in Billings, MT. Our children deserve the opportunity to attain a Classical Christian education. To this end they need someone to commence the beginning; they need advocates. The schools they currently attend revolve around test-taking, and predominantly focus on the production of college- and career-ready students. Our children deserve so much more. I hope that Billings has a group of parents who, themselves, have been inspired with the goodness and beauty of Classical education, and believe that our community's youth would flourish should such a school be made available. Classical Christian Education in Missions in Africa as a Mission Outreach—Really? How? And Why?

The Rafiki Foundation has established 10 classical schools across the continent of Africa. It is our hope that God will use us to bring Christian Classical education to a continent whose educational system is suffering.

We are looking for educators who can work as missionaries and can commit to a minimum of two years on the field. An ideal candidate will have a Bachelor's degree in their select subject, a love for teaching, a heart for missions, and the adaptability that mission's work requires. The candidate should be a seasoned Christian who seeks to grow in knowledge, wisdom, and grace while also encouraging this growth in others.

Rafiki has these opportunities for classical educators:

Headmasters (4 openings)

Teachers (20 openings)

Dean of the Rafiki Institute of Classical Education (teacher training)— 5 openings

Music educators: 10 openings

Art educators: 10 openings

Persons interested would have to assent to our statement of belief, our mission philosophy, and raise financial support. We are praying that God will use Rafiki to bring classical Christian education to all of Africa through our model schools. Perhaps God might give you or someone you know the opportunity to help Africans know God and raise their standard of living through classical Christian education. Please visit our website at www.rafikifoundation.org to learn more or contact Executive Director Karen Elliott at karene@rafikifoundation.org or (352) 483-9131. 11/17
