PRAYER REQUESTS

ROCKBRIDGE ACADEMY

is currently pursuing purchase of an existing school facility that would allow our K-12 program finally vacate crowded rental space and exist at one location with room to grow. A critical pledge drive is about to get underway. Please pray for the Lord's provision and redemptive work in this undertaking. ^{8/18}

GRACE CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

in NY is in need of prayer for a bigger facility and for our Spring Gala upon which we rely heavily to produce much needed compensation for our financial aid students. Nassau County is the highest cost of living in the country, is the 29th largest county in the country, is the 99th least reached for the Gospel, and is less than 3% evangelical. Funding for anything that relies on a very small Christian community in a very expensive location is really tough! ^{8/18}

GRACE CLASSICAL SCHOOL

My prayer, first and foremost, is that our families will know the Lord more deeply because of this and that He will be glorified in it all. Please pray for the safety of our families and safe places for them to stay. Pray for our moms who are doing this alone. Pray that the light of Christ will shine through us to Jacksonville upon our return. Pray for the other schools on the coast of the Carolinas and Georgia. ^{10/18}

is requesting prayer regarding the challenges we will face building our new school. We have purchased property for a new school and are currently in the process of having the county approve a conditional use permit so we can build there. The process is going smoothly overall, but it's a LONG process! We are getting closer to knowing if our project is approved, and now it's time to work on fundraising. The property is raw land so all the infrastructure like turn lanes and roads, utilities, possibly even a satellite or fiber optics to have internet service, will be needed. The costs are enormous, and all that is before we can even begin the buildings. I would really appreciate prayers that God will lead us to the people and organizations/foundations that have the resources we will need to make this leap from a 20-student schoolhouse to a full K-12 Godly campus. ^{11/18}

PROVIDENCE CLASSICAL SCHOOL IN DOTHAN, AL

is currently asking for prayers for the teachers whose homes were damaged by Hurricane Michael. Give thanks that the school facility suffered minor damage. ^{11/18}

JOHN KENNON GRANT

I am experienced teacher, coach, and administrator who not only believes in the nonpareil nature of Christian education, but is also one who experienced God's goodness through Christian education. I was in a public middle school when my parents died. The Lord opened doors to Christian education, and as a result I was radically changed. My experience convinced me that Christian education is not merely about informing a mind with facts, but about forming life wisdom and habits that help usher in the kingdom of God. My education and experience are oriented towards building Christ's kingdom through education. I hold a B.A. degree from Crichton College and an M.A. degree from Reformed Theological Seminary. I am currently pursuing an EdD in Instruction and Curriculum Leadership at the University of Memphis (should be ABD May, 2019 and graduate May 2020). Since 2011, I have served as a classroom teacher, administrator, and coach. I've taught courses in Bible and World Religions, served as Dean of Students, interviewed prospective families and students, reviewed policies and procedures, and lead faculty meetings. Outside the classroom, I've coached golf, baseball, basketball and football. You can reach me by email, JOHNKGRNT@GMAIL.COM. 8/18

SHELDON DANCE

Teaching in public education for five years has given me a first hand look at the corrosive effect of our modern educational model. Students graduate indifferent to learning, ignorant of the good, and cynical about nearly everything. One of the greatest joys of my current job is giving students a glimpse of what their education should be like. To their confusion, I tell them that their education should train them for living virtuously and pursuing truth. My temperament, philosophy, and worldview are suited for working in a classical Christian school. I want to be more than just an engineer of career-oriented skills. I want to be a true teacher and mentor, one involved in the intellectual and spiritual formation of my students. Truth is found nowhere else besides Jesus Christ, and all our learning should be a foundation for seeking and understanding Him. Although all my degrees are from secular institution, my education in the humanities solidified my faith. I cannot imagine a more worthy career than passing on the tradition of classical learning and the beauty of the Christian faith to the next generation. My wife and I are willing to relocate in order to make this a possibility. You can reach me by email at SHELDON AUGUST DANCE@GMAIL.COM. 8/18

WESTON MARK ANDERSON

Thank you for considering my application for teaching at an Classical Christian School. Based on my educational background, academic interests, and personal skills, I believe that I would be an asset to the teaching faculty of a Classical Christian School. I have a bachelor's degree with a double major in Christian Ministry and Biblical Studies from Briarcrest College. During the last two months of my undergraduate education I completed a two month long internship under my pastor where I preached from the pulpit, preached in nursing homes, lead a bible study, helped with pastoral administrative tasks, wrote for our local paper, and led worship. After exploring the field of education and discovering Classical Christian Schools. I new this was the career that I do not believe that other educational philosophies- social constructionist, existentialist, etc- fulfill that end as well as the Perennialist model does. Furthermore, I would like to teach at a Christian school because I would like influence students towards embracing the Christian faith. I would like to "give them reasons for the hope within" as Peter writes. To contact me, please email WESTONANDERSON.87@GMAIL.COM. 10/18

JASON KENNETH BIETTE

My desire is to use my training, skills, gifting, and experience to become a contributing member of a Classical Christian School, either in the classroom or in an administrative role. I have been involved in Christian Education since 2001, and have long desired to be a part of a Classical Christian School. My background in Science, including writing and implementing several curricula, as well as lab courses has well prepared me to be in the Science classroom in any educational setting, and my resume shows that this includes the Professional College level. You can call me at (434) 842-6471 or email me at PSJKBIETTE@GMAIL.COM 11/18

TESSA J. CRIST

I am Art Teacher in the middle of my third year teaching K-12 art in an Iowa Public School. I have a Masters degree in art history so it is my greatest passion to incorporate art history into all my art lessons in all grades. But I also I love to work with classroom teachers to create cross-curricular lessons. I would love the opportunity to teach art in a Christian Classical School, where I could teach art through a Biblical Worldview lens and focus on what is true, good, and beautiful. I have always felt that God is calling me to teach in a Christian Classical school where I can teach art as an act of worship and delve deeply into philosophy of art and what that looks like from a Biblical perspective. BILLINGS, MT

The ACCS website states that, "If the Lord reveals the need to you, He may be calling you to start a school." After about a year of reflection, contemplation, study, prayer, research, and more prayer, the time has come for me to heed this call, to move forward, and to contact the ACCS. I seek the establishment of a Classical Christian school in Billings, MT. Our children deserve the opportunity to attain a Classical Christian education. To this end they need someone to commence the beginning; they need advocates. The schools they currently attend revolve around test-taking, and predominantly focus on the production of college- and career-ready students. Our children deserve so much more. I hope that Billings has a group of parents who, themselves, have been inspired with the goodness and beauty of Classical education, and believe that our community's youth would flourish should such a school be made available. Classical Christian Education in Missions in Africa as a Mission Outreach—Really? How? And Why?

The Rafiki Foundation has established 10 classical schools across the continent of Africa. It is our hope that God will use us to bring Christian Classical education to a continent whose educational system is suffering.

We are looking for educators who can work as missionaries and can commit to a minimum of two years on the field. An ideal candidate will have a Bachelor's degree in their select subject, a love for teaching, a heart for missions, and the adaptability that mission's work requires. The candidate should be a seasoned Christian who seeks to grow in knowledge, wisdom, and grace while also encouraging this growth in others.

Rafiki has these opportunities for classical educators:

Headmasters (4 openings)

Teachers (20 openings)

Dean of the Rafiki Institute of Classical Education (teacher training)— 5 openings

Music educators: 10 openings

Art educators: 10 openings

Persons interested would have to assent to our statement of belief, our mission philosophy, and raise financial support. We are praying that God will use Rafiki to bring classical Christian education to all of Africa through our model schools. Perhaps God might give you or someone you know the opportunity to help Africans know God and raise their standard of living through classical Christian education. Please visit our website at www.rafikifoundation.org to learn more or contact Executive Director Karen Elliott at karene@rafikifoundation.org or (352) 483-9131. 5/18
