PRAYER REQUESTS

ROCKBRIDGE ACADEMY

is currently pursuing purchase of an existing school facility that would allow our K-12 program finally vacate crowded rental space and exist at one location with room to grow. A critical pledge drive is about to get underway. Please pray for the Lord's provision and redemptive work in this undertaking. ^{8/18}

GRACE CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

in NY is in need of prayer for a bigger facility and for our Spring Gala upon which we rely heavily to produce much needed compensation for our financial aid students. Nassau County is the highest cost of living in the country, is the 29th largest county in the country, is the 99th least reached for the Gospel, and is less than 3% evangelical. Funding for anything that relies on a very small Christian community in a very expensive location is really tough! ^{8/18}

GRACE CLASSICAL SCHOOL

My prayer, first and foremost, is that our families will know the Lord more deeply because of this and that He will be glorified in it all. Please pray for the safety of our families and safe places for them to stay. Pray for our moms who are doing this alone. Pray that the light of Christ will shine through us to Jacksonville upon our return. Pray for the other schools on the coast of the Carolinas and Georgia. ^{10/18}

is requestug prayer regarding the challenges we will face building our new school. We have purchased property for a new school and are currently in the process of having the county approve a conditional use permit so we can build there. The process is going smoothly overall, but it's a LONG process! We are getting closer to knowing if our project is approved, and now it's time to work on fundraising. The property is raw land so all the infrastructure like turn lanes and roads, utilities, possibly even a satellite or fiber optics to have internet service, will be needed. The costs are enormous, and all that is before we can even begin the buildings. I would really appreciate prayers that God will lead us to the people and organizations/foundations that have the resources we will need to make this leap from a 20-student schoolhouse to a full K-12 Godly campus.^{11/18}

PROVIDENCE CLASSICAL SCHOOL IN DOTHAN, AL

is currently asking for prayers for the teachers whose homes were damaged by Hurricane Michael. Give thanks that the school facility suffered minor damage. ^{11/18}

NICHOLAS DANIEL NEWMAN
Position desired: Administrator, Head of School, Teacher

Something seemed off, working in the public school system. Especially in the move toward an all encompassing focus on STEM education, on “real world” education, to the exclusion of the liberal arts. The academic freedom of the teacher becomes more and more infringed upon, and academic rigor evaporates. As these changes morph what I loved into something almost unrecognizable over the past few years, I began to think about how I would create an educational system, one run collegially, allowing for academic freedom of the faculty, holding fast to time honored teaching methods, based on a discussion of primary texts. Such an education would understand that the purpose of an education is to understand fundamental truths of personhood as an image and likeness of God.

Four years ago, I began teaching at a small, liberal arts college, Northeast Catholic College. Here, to my surprise, I found that my inclination for how an education should work already exists, a Classical Education. My experience in teaching at Northeast Catholic has led me to grow dissatisfied with the philosophy of education at the public schools to the point I no longer feel compatible. I realize that God is pushing me to move on and has instilled in me the desire search out opportunities in which I can better carry out His will. Teaching or being an administrator at a Classical, Christian school would be such a God given opportunity, in which I can make a real difference in the life of a student.
