

I. Introduction

The Christian faith is a religion of world conquest. If we do not believe that, then every form of cultural engagement will be simply a form of slow surrender. It is the way of compromise. If you don't believe in the triumph of the gospel, then the only safe thing to do is to go the way of the neo-Amish.

II. Paideia

“And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord” (Eph. 6:4).

The word paideia refers to enculturation. But in order to have Christian enculturation, you must have a Christian culture. And if you don't have one of those, you must build it.

III. Why Christian kids need Christian education

The fact that we need to go over this so many times is the first argument for it. If we had had a Christian education, it wouldn't take so many times for us to grasp the concept.

IV. A call to action

The secular state will collapse when Christians stop supporting it. Their cathedral of secularism only stands because we are willing to be the flying buttresses.
